

CONSIDERATIONS FOR ONLINE PROCTORING OPTIONS

SUGGESTIONS FOR INSTRUCTORS:

	RESPONDUS LOCKDOWN BROWSER	RESPONDUS MONITOR	HONORLOCK	AGGIE PROCTORING CENTER	FACULTY-SUPPORTED LIVE ONLINE PROCTORING ZOOM
Is video of students taking the exam available?	No	Yes	Yes	Faculty may record the first screen of 49 participants	Faculty may record the first screen of 49 participants
Is my exam secure? How do I know that it will not be copied and shared on screen?	Student screen capturing is blocked	Student screen capturing is blocked	Honorlock has protocols for exam integrity	No specific protocols; Aggie Proctors will observe and document if student uses second device to take pictures	No specific protocols
Will I have access to quality evidence supporting a possible misconduct allegation?	Individual student report showing "flags" suggesting possible misconduct	Individual student report showing "flags" suggesting possible misconduct	Individual student report showing "flags" suggesting possible misconduct	Individual student report showing "flags" suggesting possible misconduct. Faculty may record, but the recording may not be sufficient to develop a compelling misconduct allegation	Faculty may record, but the recording may not be sufficient to develop a compelling misconduct allegation
Do I need to train proctors?	No	No	No	No, but you (or an official designee) must be present during the live proctored exams	Faculty (or an official designee) must be present. Faculty should not create multiple zoom sessions for an exam. If faculty chooses to use additional proctors, faculty must provide training
Is this solution suitable for a low-stakes exam?	Yes	Yes	No	Yes	Yes
Is this solution suitable for a high-stakes exam?	Modest security measures in place	Modest security measures in place	Yes	Depends on proctor to student ratio and other exam protocols	Depends on proctor to student ratio and other exam protocols
Is this solution suitable for exams where faculty allow students to use reference materials such as paper notes, printed book, etc.?	No	Not recommended	No	Yes, but faculty must provide instructions to Aggie Proctors	Yes
Is this solution suitable for exam requiring paper and written problem-solving	No	Not recommended	Not recommended	Yes, but Faculty must provide instructions to proctors	Yes